

Oldies definitely golden

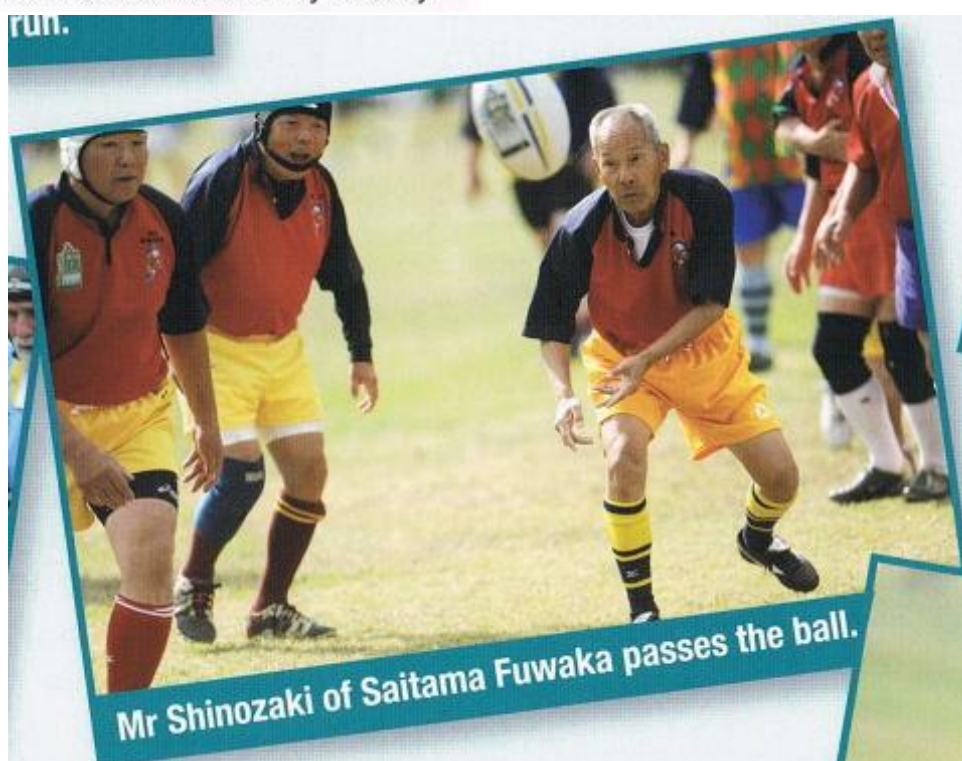

Some of the marvellous group following the match between the International Over 70s and the Japan Over 75s.

While there are a significant number of “younger” participants moving into the Golden Oldies World Rugby Festival, the Fukuoka Festival produced a remarkable 40 players 70 years or older.

This is a superb feat and shows that the love of rugby spans a lifetime, and that Golden Oldies is an excellent way to stay

The performance of the septuagenarians was celebrated with a final day match between the International Over 70s and the Japan Over 75s.

Mr Shinozaki of Saitama Fuwaka passes the ball.
